

Pentecost Homily

The Holy Spirit is a gift from God.

It is given to Jesus's disciples to remind us of everything that Jesus said and did.

The Holy Spirit instructs the Church established by Jesus and guides it.

The Holy Spirit imparts the necessary gifts to the disciples of Christ in order to sanctify and strengthen the faithful and the clergy.

The Holy Spirit is non-substitutable, irreplaceable and non-disposable.

There is no substitute for the Holy Spirit. Try as you may, you will never be able to substitute anything on earth for the Holy Spirit. There is only one Holy Spirit. It is not an object or an app; it can't be downloaded.

It is impossible for anybody to replace the Holy Spirit with an equal alternative. Why would anybody want to replace a gift given by God?

Nobody has been successful in throwing away the Holy Spirit. It is not possible to dispose of this unfathomable gift of God.

Non-substitutable, irreplaceable, non-disposable.

The Holy Spirit: priceless.
