

14th Sunday in Ordinary Time B Homily

Jesus taught a valuable lesson to his disciples when he took them to his native place. He taught them how to deal with people who reject them because they teach the truth about the Kingdom of God.

This lesson would help his disciples to persevere in teaching the truth about how to live according to God's ways.

This lesson helps us to persevere in teaching the truth about God's ways no matter how many people reject us. After all, they aren't rejecting us; it is God they are rejecting.

On this Independence Day weekend we can be grateful that four Justices of the Supreme Court reaffirmed God's definition of marriage. It's regretful that two Catholic Justices of the Supreme Court did not.
