

32nd Sunday in Ordinary Time C

“Those who are deemed worthy to attain to the coming age and to the resurrection of the dead neither marry nor are given in marriage.” With this teaching Jesus reveals three things about our future. First, we have to be found worthy by God in order for our souls to be in His presence after we die. Second, our earthly bodies, after death, are to be raised by God at the time of the resurrection. Third, there are no marriages taking place in heaven.

Why is this important? Jesus is letting us know there is life after death; there will be a resurrection of our bodies at a future time and that life in heaven is different than life on earth. May we be deemed worthy of eternal life in the presence of God.
